

MEMORANDUM

To: Active or Deferred Members, Nonemployee Spouses & Legal Representatives
From: John W. Gobel, Sr. – Chief Benefits Officer
Re: Information on Domestic Relations Orders - Separate Interest Approach

To assist with any questions that you may have regarding the division of retirement benefits upon the divorce or legal separation of an active or deferred member, please review the enclosed publication titled “SCERS Dissolution of Marriage Guidelines (Pursuant to Article 8.4).” As indicated on the cover page of this document, the guidance and model language therein are appropriate for members who are not retired or have not yet received benefit payments from the Sacramento County Employees’ Retirement System (“SCERS”).

As the parties to the marriage proceed with the dissolution and/or the division of community property interests, please be aware that the reference enclosure is strictly informational. Members who terminate their marriage may elect to follow model language offered by SCERS or develop their own domestic relations order (“DRO”). In either case, the parties to the marriage must provide a draft of the proposed DRO and allow our office to review it prior to seeking court approval of any agreement affecting SCERS.

In closing, DROs affecting SCERS require advance review and “approval to form.” Given these conditions, members and spouses often find our model language informative and time-saving. Ultimately, however, the terms of any order are dictated by the parties to the marriage and, if applicable, their legal representatives.

If you have any questions regarding this memo or the referenced enclosure, please call or write to our office as indicated below:

Notice

As a general rule, SCERS benefits are only payable to Members, their survivors and beneficiaries. However, the law recognizes an exception to this general rule in cases involving the dissolution of a Member's marriage.

When a dissolution of marriage action is filed, the Member and/or other parties to the action should notify SCERS in writing of the pending action, giving: the date of marriage, and date of separation; and, spouses' name, date of birth, Social Security number and current mailing address (telephone number is optional).

SCERS is required to maintain confidentiality of individual records of Members pursuant to Section 31532. Thus, before specific account information can be provided to anyone other than our Member, SCERS must be served with an order from a court of competent jurisdiction or a written statement from our Member authorizing release of such information.

Shortly after we have received proper authorization, SCERS will provide all parties with...

- A valuation of the Member's account. The valuation will specify the approximate community property interest that the former spouse can either withdraw upon issuance of the final decree, or receive as a monthly retirement allowance for life when eligible.

If you have additional questions, please contact us. SCERS staff is ready to help you through this difficult process.

Authority

These Guidelines are based on the provisions of Article 8.4 of the County Employees' Retirement Law of 1937 (which begins at Section 31685 of the California Government Code). Article 8.4 provides for the division of the community property interests of SCERS Members in accordance with the provisions of a Court order setting forth the terms and conditions of the dissolution of a Member's marriage issued pursuant to Section 2610 of the Family Code.

Article 8.4 was made operative in Sacramento County by Resolution No. 2000-0566 adopted by majority vote of the Board of Supervisors on May 23, 2000.

SCERS is not subject to the Employees' Retirement and Income Security Act ("ERISA").

SCERS does not administer Sacramento County's IRC Section 457 Deferred Compensation Plan. You must contact the County Deferred Compensation Office at (916) 874-2020 or (916) 874-4695 for Deferred Compensation Information.

SCERS Policy

Community Property: Effective May 23, 2000, the Retirement Administrator shall accept orders pertaining to the division of the community property interest in a Member's account only if such orders are issued (1) by a court of competent jurisdiction, (2) in conformance with the provisions of Family Code § 2610 and (3) in conformance with the provision of Article 8.4 of the 1937 Act [County Employees' Retirement Law of 1937], commencing at GC§31685. The Retirement Administrator shall return orders, which are not in conformance with these criteria to the parties for revision.

Rights: A Nonmember who, pursuant to an order of the court, elects to establish a separate account, as authorized by Article 8.4 of the 1937 Act, may exercise the rights of a Member, except that (a) a Nonmember is not eligible to apply for or receive a disability retirement allowance, (b) a Nonmember's pre-retirement death benefits shall consist of return of the contributions and interest in the Nonmember's account and (c) a Nonmember is not eligible to participate in the election of trustees.

Election of Optional Allowances: A Nonmember may retire pursuant to the provisions of Article 8.4 and elect optional allowances pursuant to Article 11.

Actuarial Equivalency: The Retirement Administrator is responsible for ascertaining that the combined benefits payable to the Member and Nonmember are the actuarial equivalent of the value of the benefit to which the Member would have been eligible had no division of the community property interest occurred, per GC§31685.95.

Approval: All applications for Nonmember benefits submitted pursuant to this Article shall be subject to review and approval by the Board. The Retirement Administrator shall place such applications on the Consent Calendar for the Board's ratification of staff's actions.

Guidelines Are Not Mandatory

Members and Nonmembers are not mandated to use the provisions in these Guidelines. These Guidelines are intended to provide the parties with reasonable flexibility, while facilitating the drafting of DRO's which can be uniformly implemented by the Retirement Administrator.

Confidentiality

Each party to the DRO gains sole control over her or his separate account. However, the Retirement Administrator is authorized to advise (1) the Member, if the Nonmember withdraws or dies; and (2) the Nonmember, if the Member retires or dies before the Nonmember. Unless specified otherwise in the DRO, neither party has a right to any other information regarding the other party's actions relative to their separate account and such actions shall be deemed confidential.

Scenarios

For Members who are not retired, a following table describes the impact of various events upon your individual accounts.

For Members who are retired at the time of the final decree, the court will order a split of the Member's benefit in the Domestic Relations Order.

Joinder Is Mandatory

Once a DRO is drafted SCERS Counsel should review the draft DRO before its submission to the Court. The Court is prohibited from imposing a DRO on SCERS to pay benefits whose total value would exceed the value the Member would have received if the DRO had not been issued.

The SCERS Counsel will review the draft to assure its applicability to SCERS plan design and SCERS ability to administer it.

The Sacramento County Employee's Retirement System must be joined as a party to the proceedings in order for SCERS to comply with the DRO. See the attached excerpts from the California Family Code for further information.

Dividing Your Retirement Account

The law allows the court to provide for the division of our Member's SCERS retirement account at the time of dissolution.

A sample Domestic Relations Order [DRO] is included at the end of these Guidelines.

- If the Member is not already retired, refer to Domestic Relations Order "A". Model DRO "A" splits the account proportionally and allows each party to make your own independent decision on how to handle your account.
- If the Member is already retired, do not refer to DRO "A". Instead, notify SCERS of your need for assistance.

Any service credit or accumulated contributions that are not explicitly awarded by the judgement or court order shall be deemed the exclusive property of the Member.

(c) Upon receipt of the court order separating the account of the Member and the Nonmember pursuant to this section, the Board shall determine the rights of the Nonmember, taking into consideration the court order and the account of the Member. These rights may include the following:

(d) In the capacity of Nonmember, the Nonmember shall not be entitled to any disability retirement allowance.

§31685.1. Nonmember

“Nonmember”, as used in this article, means the spouse or former spouse, or child or other dependent as ordered by the court, of a Member, who as a result of petitioning the court for the division of community property, has been awarded a distinct and separate account reflecting specific credited services and accumulated contributions.

§31685.2. Nonmember right to refund; waiver of all rights

(a) The Nonmember who is awarded a separate account shall have the right to a refund of the accumulated contributions and interest credited in the separate account of the Nonmember.

(b) The Nonmember shall file an application on a form provided by the system to obtain the refund.

(c) The refund shall be effective when the system deposits in the United States mail an initial warrant drawn in favor of the Nonmember and addressed to the latest address for the Nonmember on file with the system.

(d) The Nonmember is deemed to have permanently waived all rights in the system and all rights to any future retirement benefits pertaining to the service credit accumulated contributions, or both, when the refund become effective.

(e) The Nonmember may not cancel a refund once it has become effective.

(f) The Nonmember shall have no right to elect to redeposit the refunded accumulated contributions from the Nonmember’s account after the refund is effective, and shall have no right to redeposit or to purchase service credit after the refund becomes effective.

(g) If at the time of the marriage dissolution or legal separation, the Member does not have the necessary minimum credited service to elect deferred retirement, the Nonmember shall receive a refund of the accumulated contributions and credited interest placed in the Nonmember’s account.

(h) If the nonmember receives a refund under this section, the Member may elect to redeposit accumulated contributions and interest refunded to the Nonmember and to receive credit for the service time that had been forfeited by the Nonmember. The election shall be made within five years of receipt of notice from the board of eligibility to redeposit the contributions. The board shall establish the manner of payment and the time period within which the redeposit of contributions may be made. The interest rate established by the board shall be the same as that charged to Members on all other redeposits.

§31685.3. Redeposit of accumulated contributions previously refunded

- (b) The Nonmember may redeposit only those accumulated contributions and interest that were previously refunded to the Member and that the court has determined to be the community property interest of the Nonmember in the accumulated contributions.
- (c) If the Nonmember elects to redeposit, he or she shall repay the accumulated contributions and interest.
